DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on April 23, 2008 has been entered.

Claims 2-4,6,8-9 and 25 are canceled by Applicant. Claims 11-24 are withdrawn from further consideration. Claims 26-32 are newly added.

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

Particles, comprising different combinations of different polymeric components for core as A1 and shell as A2.

The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

Single combination of polymeric components for A1( one single polymer from group listed in Claim 1) and A2 ( one single polymer from group listed in Claim1) - Claims 1,5,7,10,32 and any of Claims 26-32 readable on specific components for A1 and A2.

Art Unit: 1796

The following claim(s) are generic: Claim 1.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Common technical feature of Claims 1-,5,7,10 and 26-32 as a particle, comprising core-shell structure contained combination of polymeric compounds is not a Special technical feature, because it fails define contribution over prior art - see previous Office action mailed on August 27,2007, rejection over Shigemori et al.( US 2003/0049559).

A telephone call was made to Garth Dalen on May 16,2008 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.
